

UKG Pro Workforce Management Analytics

Empowering managers with actionable insights

UKG Pro Workforce Management™ Analytics delivers insights instantly to your frontline and operational people managers so they can confidently make impactful labour decisions backed by data. Easily identify, manage, and optimise opportunities for labour cost savings and productivity, with KPIs, metrics, and thresholds that help your teams stay on track with your business goals in real time.

Personalised business indicators

KPIs, metrics, and thresholds help your people managers align to business goals in real time so they can make impactful labour decisions confidently, minimising labour costs and maximising productivity.

Actionable insights

Simple, easy-to-read visualisations help people managers understand what actions they need to take to course-correct and avert potential issues before they happen — all at a glance.

Workforce data made simpler

All of the precalculated data is delivered right in UKG Pro Workforce Management, bringing a user-friendly and consistent data delivery experience for your frontline and operational managers.

Key Benefits

For frontline and operational managers

Align toward business labour budgets and goals easily with KPIs, metrics, and thresholds

Get instant, on-demand access to the insights and tools needed to proactively manage your people

Access labour performance insights on demand to keep results in line with expectations

Gain visibility into troubling trends while there's still time to take corrective action

Identify root causes of performance, productivity, and behaviour issues

Continuously improve results by managing to organisation-specific or best practice KPIs

Key Features of UKG Pro Workforce Management Analytics

- Built for frontline and operational managers
- Seamless experiences powered by the UKG Flex platform
- Real-time data and reporting
- Nearly 150 KPIs and metrics included out of the box
- Ability to build and tailor KPIs with KPI Builder
- Configurable dashboard tiles on the home page
- Mobile-friendly